Jehovah's Witness District Convention, Joel Osteen Sports Arena, Jazz Festival, Balboa Park, SDSU, UCSD

This was a very "intense" month. The JW Convention and the Joel Osteen event were the highlights. We video taped 3 presentations at the JW Convention and have placed them on YouTube.com. We interviewed people at the Osteen event and placed it on YouTube as well. We were also able to hand out all 2500 full color tracts that we printed on Osteen. The tract is with this newsletter. If you'd like an extra one please request it. They are free until we run out.

This is just the right half of the stadium with an equal number on the left. The Saturday attendance was over 35,000! It's the most I've seen in recent years and is 20% larger than last year. If you go to YouTube.com and type in "San Diego Jehovah's Witness Convention 2011" you can see the presentations. Make sure it was posted by me, jerrybenson. There are other videos on the convention that I don't necessarily endorse.

Witnesses Believed in the Cross and Wore Crosses

This year at the JW Convention I showed photocopies from Watchtower publications that witness used to believe in the cross. They even wore a pin which had a crown and cross logo like the Watchtower magazine had for 40 years.

This is Joseph, a young man from our church. Here I read from the NWT Bible and pointed out how witnesses used to believe in the cross. The organization cannot be trusted.

John held up a sign in front of the exit at the JW convention. This is the verse where Thomas called Jesus God. We saw several witnesses writing the verse down.

Witnesses Deny Jehovah!

This year I tested the witnesses to see if they would obey Jehovah or the organization. I simply asked them, "Do you follow Jehovah?" Their dilemma was obey the organization and refuse to talk to me, or obey Jehovah and simply say yes. Almost all obeyed the organization.

I interrupted three elders at the convention and asked if they follow Jehovah. None would answer or say a word to me but quickly decided to call security that I was harassing them.

I interviewed this young man at Joel Osteen. We spoke about Osteen for a few minutes, then I asked him if he were going to heaven. He said probably not and I was able to share the gospel with him. Please pray for him.

We Ask Your Prayers...

Prayer. It's a topic that many books have been written about. A topic that many sermons have been preached on. Prayer is a powerful tool that will take us directly to the throne of the Living God.

When our little group was at the J.W. Convention last weekend I was touched deeply by the children that were there. I sorrowed over each "little one" I saw and found myself praying earnestly for their souls. Each small face burned into my memory.

There they were, these little ones all dressed up and being led along by a parent taking them into the pit of hell. So, I am asking each of you that read this newsletter that you will stop and pray for the children and then pray for the children during the year. Maybe this small generation will not continue to mislead others.

I hope you will join me in personalizing Romans 10:1 to say, "...my heart's desire and PRAYER for the Jehovah Witness children is that they may be saved".

With a heart of prayer,

Dianna
